

I would rather be around you than anyone else. I wish I could keep you in my pocket. You are a better person than you give yourself credit for. You make my pupils dilate. I love how weird you are. I like the way you breathe. Hugging you makes everything ok. I love you more than I love prince's I would die 4 u (trust me, that is a lot). When I think of how I should act in a given situation, I imagine what you would do. I like you enough to remember you like skim milk and caramel in your decaficed coffee. Your love is better than dark Chocolate. I love doing nothing with you. You are not just a muffin, you are a muffin with raisins. You make me feel shiny on the inside. Everything seems to remind me of you. I need you so much closer. You make me feel like I belong somewhere. You are the one I compare everyone else to. Thanks for drawing pictures on my back with your fingers whenever I feel bad. I would wait another 122 days for you. You will make something beautiful. Your smile makes my heart skip a beat. Your smile could brighten the sun. You make me want to be myself. Yours Truly.

clothes*

Rest. Enjoy. Linger. Wake up. Dress up. Stay up late.

For those lazy days, hazy days and hasty days.

Break up. Make up. Shake things up.

Feel the warmth of the sun on your face.

Take a walk. Walk the line. Take a break. Walk again.

Always. Yours Truly.

Pure cuts of batiste or cotton in light and ready to wear styles.

Use them in layers for texture and style, combine them with other clothes or use them on their own.

Unique embroidery for each and every garment makes sure that every piece is different. Like fingerprints, snowflakes or people, there's no two alike.

White, Dress up in the colour of high summer clouds, of fresh morning snow of blinding lights and of sugar and salt.

Woodrose, Wear the colour of milk tinted by blueberries, of lavender, of lips stained by red wine and of sweet violets.

Infinite Blue, Carry the colour of the sky closest to the horizon when the sun just set, of newly born babies eyes, of tumble-dryer fluff and of the sea, deep and mighty.
